We are proud to present this spacious townhouse in the heart of El Algar, boasting three double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a large kitchen with back patio, and a living room with a log burner. This house has been maintained to a high standard and has aircon throughout. In the basement you can access the private garage and storage room, which leads to the communal pool. There is a balcony off the master bedroom which captures the morning sun, and a front terrace with a small established garden. This house has a lot of space and would make a perfect family home.
